

Home Of The Double Dragons

貳 Welcome 龍

- Home
- About Us
- What Is San Soo
- History Of San Soo
- Schedules and Fees
- About Classes
- Contact Us/ Maps
- Special Events
- Photos/Video Clips
- Testimonials

Why San Soo ?
Because There Are No
Rules In A Real Street Fight

"One of the strengths in the Art of Kung Fu San Soo is its Adaptability to each Individual. This allows that Individual to Focus on his strengths, thus his weaknesses become Irrelevant."

Masters Lue and Dora Montalvo

Your ultimate success in Kung Fu San Soo is in direct proportion to your effort, focus and persistence.

Masters Lue and Dora Montalvo

Los Angeles Times; Sunday, Oct. 10th., 2004
"Los Angeles County has only one officer for every 435 residents."

Actual Ratio of Officers to Residents according to Data Supplied by Sheriffs Dept., Is even worse.
Between the Sheriff's and the 45 city police departments, including the LAPD , there are 22,361 officers in Los Angeles County, which has 10.1 million residents. That's a ratio of one Officer for every 452 Residents.

In Areas patrolled by the LAPD, the average response time is 6.8 minutes.

In areas patrolled by L. A County Sheriff's Deputies,
the average response time is 5.2 minutes.

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO TRUST THOSE ODDS WITH YOUR FAMILY?

Double Dragons School of Kung-Fu San Soo

RATED FIVE STARS BY YAHOO! LOCAL USERS

As of Mar 15, 2009

Last Modified May 27, 2010